- 12-14 Behold the face of your God
15-16 The beginning of Comfort
17-20 whose eyes are the brightnesse of the heavens,
- 21-25 which provided you for the government of the earth,

35-37 according to the providence of him that sitteth on the holy throne
- 38-41 and rose up in the beginning saying,
- 42-44 The earth, let her be governed by her parts;
45-48 and let there be division in her,
49-55 that the glory of her may be alwayes drunken and vexed in it self
- 56-58 Her course, Let it run with the Heavens,
59-62 and as an handmaid, Let her serve them
- 63-65 one season: Let it confound another,
66-72 and let there be no Creature upon, or within her the same
73-76 All her members let them differ in their qualities,
77-81 and Let there be no one Creature equal with another
- 82-86 The reasonable Creatures of the earth (or Man) Let them vex and weed out one another

102-104 for why? It repenteth me I made man
105-108 one while let her be known, and another while a stranger,
109-114 because she is the bed of an harlot and the dwelling place of him that is fallen.
- 115-116 O you heavens arise,
117-119 the lower heavens underneath you let them serve you,
120-122 Govern those that govern
